Group Assignment Question and Guidance

You will need to produce 2 outputs, 1500 words in total.

1. 1200-word essay
2. 300-word one-page summary

In addition, the group needs to create ~ 5-minute video of the project presentation

1200-word essay:

The broad objective of the project is for student teams to either (a) explore advanced functionality and features of Generative AI or (b) conduct an in-depth case study involving Generative AI. Each group can discuss with the instructor regarding the appropriateness of the topic chosen.

The following short list provides some topics the groups may consider:

- Advanced language models
- text-to-x (where x could be audio, image, animation, video, code, etc.)
- x-to-text
- Text summarization
- Language translation
- Advanced RAG and Fine-tuning techniques
- Transformers
- Text sourcing
- Advanced document analysis
- Entity linking
- Prompt engineering

Marking Criteria

Completeness of the solution, efficiency of the code, interpretation of the results, and the quality of the narrative (both written and the presentation video).

300-word one page summary

Each Group should submit a one-page executive summary of the project.

Maximum Length:	1500 words (this is a strict limit, not a guideline)
Submission Format:	The group project should be submitted as one-file zip file containing the narrative, video presentation, code, and one-page executive summary of the project. The students should combine all files with a zip file with the following naming format: group_number_X.zip Where X is your given group number. You should ensure your submission includes a completed Group Work coversheet which is available in your student handbook. One member of each group should make the submission on behalf of the whole group.
Assessment Weighting:	20%
Submission Deadline:	Tuesday 13 May 2025 before 12:00:00 (UK time)
Marks Released by:	Friday 4 July 2025 (we will aim to release marks by this date, but in the event of an unavoidable delay a message will be posted on the module page)

Use of Artificial Intelligence

The University recognises an increasing number of technologies such as Artificial Intelligence and that they may be applicable in your completing this assessment. The assessment brief sets out specific requirements or restrictions, and your student handbook has further guidance and advice.

You are reminded that the inappropriate use of such a technology may constitute a breach of University policy, such as the Proofreading Policy or Regulation 11 (Academic Integrity). If you breach these policies, it may have significant consequences for your studies. Please make sure you read and understand the assessment brief and how AI may or may not be used.

You should ensure you include an assignment cover sheet which requires you to explain the use of any AI. Failure to disclose at the point of submission may be prejudicial in any later investigations should they arise.

For this assessment, AI is: REQUIRED

You MUST set out clearly in your submission how you used the tool/service and You MUST set out clearly what output from the tool/service has been included, and where you have altered, adopted or built on that output.

Submitting your work

Before you submit your assessment, you should ensure you are familiar with the guidance and rules in the “Your Assessments” section of your Student Handbook, paying particular attention to:

- Inserting a completed assignment coversheet as the first page of your submission
 - Academic Integrity (including Plagiarism)
 - Referencing
 - Word Count Policy and Formatting
 - Confidentiality of your work
 - Extensions and late submission of work
 - Guidelines for Online Submission

Mitigating Circumstances

Mitigating circumstances MUST be submitted within 20 working days following the submission deadline. Mitigating circumstances not submitted by the relevant deadline are not required to be considered by the School/Department and may have to be considered by an Academic Appeals Committee as part of an academic appeal – for further information, please see:
